For Fair and Orderly Meetings & Conventions

Provides common rules and procedures for deliberation and debate in order to place the whole membership on the same footing and speaking the same language. The conduct of ALL business is controlled by the general will of the whole membership - the right of the majority to decide. Complementary is the right of the minority to require the majority to be deliberate - to act according to its considered judgment after a full and fair "working through" of the issues involved. Robert's Rules provides for constructive and democratic meetings, to help, not hinder, the business of the assembly. Basic procedures:

- Obtain the floor (the right to speak) by being the first to stand when the person speaking has finished; state "Mr. /Madam Chairman..." Must be recognized by the Chair before speaking.
- Debate cannot begin until the Chair has stated the motion or resolution and asks for discussion. If no one rises, the chair calls for the vote.
- Before the motion is stated by the Chair, members may suggest modification of the motion; the mover can modify as he pleases, or even withdraw the motion without consent of the seconder; if mover modifies, the seconder can withdraw the second.
- No member can speak twice to the same issue until everyone else wishing to speak has spoken to it once.
- All remarks must be directed to the Chair. Remarks must be courteous in language and deportment - avoid all personalities, never allude to others by name or to motives.
